this is MARBELLA

SUN, SEA, AND EFFORTLESS
MEDITERRANEAN LIVING

For over half a century, Marbella has drawn celebrities and travellers alike, building a global reputation as a glamorous 'Jet Set' hotspot with that unmistakable Mediterranean lifestyle*.

Part of the Costa del Sol's lively Golden Triangle, this area is known for its beachfront resorts, endless leisure options, golf courses, yachts, designer boutiques, vibrant dining scene, and buzzing nightlife.

At the heart of it all lies Marbella Old Town, a favourite slice of classic Andalusia, with its charming whitewashed buildings, historic architecture, and winding cobbled streets that lead straight to the Plaza de los Naranjos.

With sunshine almost every day of the year -around 320 days on average- it's easy to see why Marbella remains one of the most coveted spots for Mediterranean vacation homes.

*According to a survey of 1 million travellers from 172 countries, Marbella was voted #1 European Best Destination in 2024 (source: Forbes)

life on the COSTA DEL SOL

BEYOND THE RESORT, A WORLD OF OPTIONS FOR ALL AGES

Marbella's top-notch sports facilities, stylish marinas, boutiques, shopping centres, casinos, entertainment spots, safari park, water and theme parks, beaches, pools, gyms, restaurants, and nightclubs all come together to create that effortless Costa del Sol lifestyle.

Go for a hike or bike ride in the scenic Serranía de Ronda mountains, tee off at one of the many 18-hole championship golf courses, enjoy horse riding, tennis, padel, kite surfing, sailing, or other water sports - or just treat yourself to some retail therapy at the region's shopping outlets.

Culture is never far away, with a packed calendar of festivals, theatre, concerts, and ballets, and the historic cities of Granada, Sevilla, and Córdoba are just a drive away, each full of history and stunning Moorish architecture.

All this, and much more, on your doorstep.

Here, the calm vibes, beautiful natural surroundings, and top-notch dining scene offer a welcome balance to the lively beachfront towns nearby.

the benahavís LIFESTYLE

ONE OF SPAIN'S MOST DESIRABLE SPOTS IN THE GOLDEN TRIANGLE*

Just 7 kilometres northwest of Marbella, tucked in the foothills of the Serranía de Ronda mountains, this charming village captivates with its stunning scenery and natural beauty. Typical Andalusian architecture, with whitewashed buildings, narrow winding streets, and balconies full of flowers, adds to its timeless appeal.

Set among lush green hills with panoramic views of mountains and sea, Benahavís has earned its reputation as the 'cuisine capital' of the Costa del Sol, with a lively calendar of events and festivals throughout the year.

A favourite for golf lovers, Benahavís is ranked among Spain's top three areas for golf courses, and the surrounding landscape also invites hiking, biking, horseback riding, and a host of other outdoor adventures.
